Catecismo de La Iglesia Catolica #1817:

La esperanza es la virtud teologal por la que aspiramos al Reino de los cielos y a la vida eterna como felicidad nuestra, poniendo nuestra confianza en las promesas de Cristo y apoyándonos no en nuestras fuerzas, sino en los auxilios de la gracia del Espíritu Santo. “Mantengamos firme la confesión de la esperanza, pues fiel es el autor de la promesa” (Hb10, 23). “El Espíritu Santo que Él derramó sobre nosotros con largueza por medio de Jesucristo nuestro Salvador para que, justificados por su gracia, fuésemos constituidos herederos, en esperanza, de vida eterna” (Tt 3, 6-7).

PAPA FRANCISCO AUDIENCIA GENERAL Mayo 8, 2024

Catequesis. Vicios y virtudes.
Hoy reflexionamos sobre la esperanza, que es la virtud teologal que nos ayuda a comprender que nuestra felicidad es el Reino de los cielos y la vida eterna, confiando en las promesas del Señor Jesus y en el auxilio de las gracias del Espíritu Santo. Se fundamenta en el misterio pascual de Jesucristo y en el don del Espíritu Santo, no en nuestro esfuerzo ni en nuestra voluntad personal. Frente a las preguntas trascendentales sobre el destino de nuestra vida y del mundo, la esperanza es la respuesta que Cristo nos da. Con ella, podemos vivir con alegría y serenidad nuestro presente, pues Jesús nos asegura un futuro confiable y un horizonte luminoso. Sin esperanza, en cambio, el hombre vive en la tristeza y cae en la desesperación. Pecamos contra la esperanza cuando nos quedamos anclados en el pasado, olvidando que Dios nos ama, que es misericordioso y más grande que nuestro corazón, Dios es más grande que nuestro pecado; pecamos cuando no tenemos el valor de tomar decisiones que nos comprometan de por vida.

POPE FRANCIS

GENERAL AUDIENCE 05/08/2024

In our continuing catechesis on the theological virtues, we now examine hope, by which we desire the happiness of eternal life. Without hope the life of virtue would seem unobtainable. Christian hope is grounded in the Lord himself who died and rose for us. As his followers we trust in his promises, especially the gift of the Holy Spirit, striving each day to live in a manner worthy of our calling. Patience walks hand-in-hand with hope, providing a steady path forward. When we are accompanied by them on the journey of life, we remember God’s mercy and faithful love. This helps us to avoid being held captive by nostalgia for the past, by melancholy or discouragement. With youthful hearts may we, like Simeon and Anna, persevere in hope.

Catechism of the Catholic Church:

“Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the Kingdom of Heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ’s promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit. ‘The Holy Spirit...poured out upon us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that we might be justified by His grace and become heirs in hope of eternal life’” (CCC 1817).
Note: Theological means that this gift comes from God and leads us back to God. A virtue is an habitual and firm disposition to do the good. Supernatural means that the virtue is above our nature
